Thank you so very much for your generosity!

Please note: Donors who purchase items at a charity auction may only claim a charitable contribution deduction for the amount paid for an item that exceeds fair market value (e.g., a concert ticket valued at $50, but purchased for $100 is eligible for a $50 tax deduction).

Donors who provide items for charity auctions may only claim a charitable contribution deduction for the price that was paid for the item originally, if applicable (items which the donor received gratis or as a gift may not be claimed), or, in the case of products or services, the value of those items.

If you have any questions, please contact the Development Office at (203) 562-7222.
